Comment:

You have performed several times well, got good wins under your belt, you have showed yet again that you can win against good players and you made a good step at Dortmund to be the number one after 6 months. Hungary counts on you and put you at all important games. This is advantage and once the daily work will be more regular, the international results will be also better and more constant. Bravo for your win against Hindersson at 2:2 against Denmark and your important win against Lind recently.

Comment:

You are IN your project, you have big will and determination and you are realising your real potential as well. We do believe that you can be a really good player! We know also that this year is again frustrating for you because of the school and the lack of regular work. But keep your head up and remember the goal we set for this season! Doesn't matter how long it takes to get there, the most important is that you get there. Keep working mentally, accept the frustration over and over again, stay positive and soon the real work can start from the summer on.

Average Physical Preparation:

Comment:

Due to the lack of time, it is hard to note any special improvement or change here. It is not your fault. Your body needs physical work, especially for your legs which connected also to your table tennis practice. Keep in mind to take care of your flexibility and stretching particularly at your hip area. Even you will not be able to work a lot physically you can improve your flexibility and understanding your body. Even small things, but keep working!

Comment:

You have started to work a bit different recently, which is the way for you to improve your game! The basic work will give you a good standing point to express your special skills, shoots. You can have a unique game with fast improvements, aggressive and dangerous style. Your game has a big potential to succeed on high level. By regular and daily practice with effort your potential will be exceeded.

Comment:

You are taking the off the table work more and more considered as part of your development. You have your book, you make your own homeworks and you are thinking deeply about yourself as well. After the summer you will have time and energy for extra works. Good to hear you speaking German, keep this effort up as it is a key factor to make your career in Germany. Stay active and take initiative off the table as well!

Comment:

You and we are making the maximum out of what we have this season. The idea has been to improve mentally and to prepare for the summer. The rest is secondary but this job must be done 100% well! We want to tell you again seriously that: you can become a good player, you have ALL to succeed. We plan with you and see you make big steps in the next 2 years. Therefore keep it up with the mental work and keep believing even in hard periods! Be nice to yourself when needed and be tough when needed!
