Comment:

You did a great job in the league and with your team, your efforts paid off. However you have no time to sit on your laurels for a second, go to the next level and make surprises at World Tours. You have now the level to be able to compete on a regular basis and to make your way at the international scene. Keep cool, focus on your game at every single game you play. This is your quality, build on it and plenty more to come with England as well.

Comment:

All is great with your mental part, but be harder with yourself! Keep your way and the balance between technical development and your own style is the way of succeeding. This is vital for you! Build your brave and animal part, be dangerous for the players same age like you and don't let other youngsters to take your place.

Comment:

Definitely improved in all areas of your game, your basic level is higher, technically you are more advanced now. Focus was on your forehand development while you also got better with backhand and all around in your game. The idea is to strengthen your own style, to create winning strokes and the way you want to win the games. Keep your own way of playing, stick with it and in the same time keep the way of your technical development. It is like "building an airplane while flying"!

Comment:

You are well organised, you take care about of the table tennis activities, your strong point is that your are structured which helps you to be on your way. Next step is to find some particular things that are only yours and make your stronger in your table tennis.

What can be done better?

You settled down very well, got used to the new environment within a short period of time. The direction is the same: to find the balance between following the group and to have your own way and philosophy. Attack the others in front of you, have a wish to catch them. We want you to be considered just as the others in your age!

What are your next GOALS?

Go, go and go! Follow your dreams and dream big! Attack on the World Tours, keep winning at your club and when the time comes be ready to show what you are made of. Remember what you could reach with your own power, with the same energy you can get to the next level soon. Use the chances when they occur!
