David Bjorkryd

Overall

Table tennis background of the family (father played before), cool and warm atmosphere around him, well built player, good talent, already practices 20-25h a week. Involved in good training centre with good facilities and table tennis sparring partners, too. Very interesting profile!

Physical ability

Already working with fitness coach on a weekly basis. Very flexible body, quick at the table, good enough strenght compare to his age.

Technique

Left-handed player with forehand dominance, strong service and receive game. Reads the game well, high playing intelligence, good base overally.

Testing

To be discussed

Mental strength

Stable and good mentality, positive attitude, cool personality, good competitor. For deeper analyse further observation needed in practice and on tournaments.

SCOUTING: 1ST SIGHT

Daniel Berzosa

Overall

Beside his job in a hospital his father takes care of him and Daniel practices 12-15h a week. Good base, nice playing style, interesting character, eager young player.

Physical ability

Good footwork and good potential, however there is no real fitness work behind him.

Technique

Left-handed player with good open game, the more the game goes the better he gets, likes the rallies and the competition, plays with good placements. Decently built but technically room to improve.

Testing

To be discussed

Mental strength

Never gives up, rises his mental level during the game and in the tough moments. Seems generally stable and balanced player. For deeper analyse further observation needed in practice and on tournaments.
