Comment:

Very well done for his overall results making very impressive start in his new team, Pontoise doing a very good first part of the season. On the top, internationally he continues to deliver regularly on his level and a big step for him has been to make the French team to the World Championships. He had some peaks with the semi-final at the Croatia Open and at the French Championships. He became a stable Top 100 player and a member of the French team which are significant achievements for him, bravo!

Comment:

He continues to dig deep mentally every single time. Hi is committed, engaged, dedicated to his own table tennis project and development. It was impressive to see how he managed the first part of the season with a very busy schedule with his team. For now his mental base is stable and this is very positive for the future. Due to his mental approach and attitude, he got to be a role model for other LMC members. Mental part will help him to continue to improve and to believe that he can be his own champion and to become good (or even top) player.

Comment:

The single biggest and most important point is that; he didn't have any injuries in this tough season. He continues to get to know his own body and what he needs to perform. This season was more about how to face the games, the competition periods and the travels. He did well, took care of his body in the right way. The summer will be dedicated for a different work which is to find time and energy to work on his general physical base.

He is the player who makes his own difference by making a good job in all technical areas. He got better in every details of his game, he has been consistent in what he was doing, his open game is up to a good level. The next vital step for him is to improve in service-recvie and third ball part. There the good players tak advantage in him still. The areas of improvement have been identified and we are certain that with his mental attitude he is going to make the next steps!

Comment:

We are very happy and proud that he restarted the school and he is about to have his final exam in the summer meaning to make his high school study to the end. That is a very important part what was suggested from us but done by himself. Moreover, we need to underline that he invests almost all his money in his table tennis and dedicates all to his career. Off the table he represents the same values and attributes as in the practice hall. Important part of the group on and off the field, as well!

Comment:

Bravo for this current season, well done! We can only say: keep this way up, keep hungry and eager to succeed. He has future in table tennis, he just needs to keep pushing and being 100% involved in his project. He does't know his limits, so he shall keep going over the boundaries and keep discovering himself. For now, he has stabilised his mentality, he proved that he can improve in all areas, next step is to enter Top 50 level on the WR and to play that level of table tennis, too.
